

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
AT SEATTLE

MANE FALETOGO, individually,

Plaintiff,

v.

CITY OF SEATTLE, a municipal corporation,
OFFICER JARED KELLER ,

Defendants.

NO.

COMPLAINT FOR DAMAGES:
PARENTAL LOSS OF CONSORTIUM
RE: THE DEATH OF IOSIA
FALETOGO

JURY DEMANDED

COMES NOW the Plaintiff by and through his attorneys of record, and alleges as follows:

I. PARTIES

1. Plaintiff Mane FaletoGO is an adult male and the father of his deceased, Iosia FaletoGO.

2. Defendants City of Seattle and Officer Jared Keller were responsible as employers, operators, and/or agents in relation to the Seattle Police Department.

II. STATEMENT OF FACTS

3. At approximately 5pm on Monday, December 31, 2018, then 36-year-old Iosia FaletoGO was pulled over on Highway 99 near 96th Avenue North by officers with the Seattle Police Department.

COMPLAINT FOR DAMAGES: PARENTAL LOSS
OF CONSORTIUM RE: THE DEATH
OF IOSIA FALETOGO - 1 of 5

1 4. The alleged purpose of the stop was an illegal lane change and the license plate
2 of the vehicle indicated that the owner had a suspended license.

3 5. Iosia Faletogo ran from the scene, and a chase ensued, eventually involving at 4 least six (6) officers in pursuit.

5 6. The six (6) officers chased him across the highway and toward a side street,
6 where they tackled him and struggled to arrest Iosia Faletogo.

7 7. The officers spotted a gun on, and ordered Iosia Faletogo to release the weapon,
8 and pandemonium ensued.

9 8. “You’re going to get shot!” the officers can be heard screaming during the chase
10 and physical struggle, followed by a glimpse of Iosia Faletogo’s gun on the ground beside him
11 while several officers hovered over him.

12 9. Another officer shouted “He’s reaching,” to which Iosia Faletogo said in a 13 muffled voice, “I’m not reaching.”

14 10. Ultimately, Officer Jared Keller fired his weapon into the back of Iosia
15 Faletogo’s head.

16 11. At the time, Officer Keller was wearing a mandated body camera, which 17 reflected that Iosia Faletogo’s hands were entirely free of the weapon at the moment he was 18 shot:

12. The fatal shooting came as a shock not only to Faletogo's family, but to the tight-knit local Samoan community which Faletogo's aunt Tiare Chanel said has been deeply affected by his death. "The shooting has brought a very dark cloud in my family," said Chanel, a Tacoma resident. "It has impacted our community a lot ... We feel that we're just going to be part of the count of people of color that's been conflicted with these issues."

13. At the request of Chief Carmen Best, the State Patrol has reportedly opened a criminal investigation into the shooting.

14. Mane Faletogo brings this lawsuit for what appears to be the unnecessary execution of his son.

III. FEDERAL LOSS OF CONSORTIUM CLAIM: 42 U.S.C. 1983

15. Ninth Circuit precedent holds that "a parent who claims loss of the companionship and society of his or her child, or vice versa ... has a constitutionally protected liberty interest under the Fourteenth Amendment in the companionship and society of his or her child”¹ This is true even where the deprivation is incidental to the state's acts.² Official conduct that “shocks the conscience” in depriving parents of that interest is cognizable as a violation of due process.³ Where “actual deliberation is practical, then an officer's ‘deliberate indifference’ may suffice to shock the conscience.”⁴ On the other hand, “where a law enforcement officer makes a snap judgment because of an escalating situation, his conduct may only be found to shock the conscience if he acts with a purpose to harm unrelated to legitimate law enforcement objectives.”⁵

16. Under this federal law, Mane Faletogo has a cause of action for the deprivation associated with the loss of his adult son, Iosia Faletogo. Pursuant to the claims recognized at federal common law stemming from the substantive due process rights under the Fourteenth Amendment, Mane Faletogo hereby brings such a claim. At present, this federal lawsuit does not include any claims derived by the Estate of Iosia Faletogo or any of the other beneficiaries under state law. This claim also includes a cause of action for a pattern, practice, and failure of training on the part of the City of Seattle leading up to this wrongful death. It is well documented that the City of Seattle has a pattern and practice of the use of excessive force. Multiple questionable shootings have occurred over the preceding years. In this situation, the use of lethal force was not necessary, and full de-escalation was never attempted.

IV. PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff requests a judgment against Defendants:

- (a) Awarding Plaintiff general, special, and punitive damages to be proven at trial;
- (b) Awarding him reasonable attorney's fees and costs as available under law;
- (c) Awarding him any and all applicable interest on the judgment; and
- (d) Awarding them him other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper under the circumstances of this case.

DATED this 20th day of February, 2019.
